Who I Am

When I first joined Petite2Queen, I was excited at the opportunity to research and write about many of the life and workplace issues I care about. Over time, this role grew into speaking on webinars and our weekly podcast.

Through it all, I've only become more passionate about helping others by providing them with the information and resources they need to advance in their careers and lives.

At Petite2Queen, I use my strengths to drive our company and our clients forward.

About My Background

After earning my master's degree in Global Entertainment & Music Business, I worked in journalism and music publishing sales before moving into an expanding role at Petite2Queen.

Expert Focus

As VP of Operations, I keep the big picture in mind and ensure that all the moving parts are working together; I make sure nothing is overlooked.
